EASTER

Since the advent of man there has always existed the hope and belief of another and better land beyond the boundaries of earth.
The ancient Greeks located their future abode on top of Mount Olympus, where the gods dwelt, and saved, since and saint down thru the ages has pertinaciously clung to the idea that death is not out-end. Different peoples have had different names for the terrestrial abode, among them Nirvana, Elysium, Valhalla, the happy hunting grounds of the Indians, the Garden of Hesperides and with us Christians, Heaven.

Easter holds peculiar significance in that it is in reality a definite promise of life beyond the grave.
There is no person living in a Christian land but what wants to believe that he is immortal, and that his real life is not interrupted with the departure of breath from the body. There is no man in uncivilized lands, but what believes the same thing, although the idea may be expressed in a different way. Always present is the innate desire in all of us to survive the brief span of years we are allotted here. We view a place where sickness and sin are not known and where in that "bright and glorious morning" we shall meet in happy reunion those we loved and have gone on before.
Nature itself justifies our belief in immortality, and our faith car-

Large Default Damage Verdicts Given By Court

MARTINEZ, April 11.—With the default of the defendant filed in both actions, when neither he nor his attorneys made an appearance, Superior Judge Thomas D. Johnston today has granted judgments for $25,000 to F. Emil Anderson and his wife Anne Anderson in automobile injury suits.

Mrs. Anderson filed a suit for $25,000 against Le Roy McGruer, for injuries she claimed she suffered in an automobile collision at Market and Twenty-third streets, San Pablo on November 8, 1931.

Her husband filed suit for $10, 000 against McGruer, claiming his wife's injuries were permanent, and asking the sum for loss of her comfort and society.

When the defendant defaulted today, Judge Johnston went ahead with the trial, and after hearing evidence he announced the judgments.

Attorney T. N. Calfee represented the plaintiffs.

Marin County Mystery Death Starts Probe

SAN RAFAEL, April 11.—UP.—
The body of John DeRosa, 41, a milkman, was found along the Redwood highway near here tonight, a possible victim of the Marin County milkers' strike.

DeRosa died from a fractured skull about three hours before mil-ksters found "the body near Nevada."

As his clothes were not torn and there were no indications he had been struck by an automobile, authorities believed it possible he might have been beaten in an outburst of strike violence.

Search, however, also was being made on the possibility he was a hit-run auto victim.

N. Y. MURDER BAFFLES POLICE TOWNSEND PROBERS ARE SPLIT

ASSAULT OF WOMAN TOLD IN AUTOPSY

NEW YORK, April 11.—UP.— Nancy Evans Titterton, comely 34 year old author, was criminally assaulted before she was strangled to death and thrown into the bath tub of her exclusive apartment, an autopsy revealed tonight.

Police said the assault was the only motive for the murder although approximately $5 was missing from the victim's purse.

BODY FOUND
The body of Mrs. Titterton wife of Lewis H. Titterton, an executive of the National Broadcasting Company, was discovered late yesterday.

She was nude except for her stockings. Her clothing, obviously ripped forcefully from her, littered the adjoining bedroom. Two pieces of wearing apparel were knotted around her neck.

The force used in disrobing her was indicated by the fact that hooks and eyes were torn from her brassiere.

NO CLUES
Authorities were without a clue to her assailant and this caused considerable anxiety in the neighborhood, one in which many well-known stage and screen performers and authors live.

In addition to revealing that Mrs.
Titterton was assaulted the autopsy determined that she was dead

PORT UNION SEEKS TEST OF STRENGTH

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—UP.—
The Maritime Federation of the Pacific, militant factor in western sea union circles, today pressed for a showdown with more conservative union elements by ordering a stop of the Grace Line's Santa Rosa when she docks at San Pedro port of Los Angeles, on Monday.

The Federation has declared the Santa Rosa "unfair" because she carries a crew whose members are not members of the Sailors' Union of the Pacific, Pacific Coast unit of the International Seamen's Union. The crew members, however, are I. S. U. members, recruited from the Great Lakes district when the regular crew refused to man the vessel in New York because of a picket line setup by other I. S. U. factions.

BACKED BY I. U.
Backed by the Sailors' Union of the Pacific and by units of the International Longshoremen's Association, the federation has demanded that the ship be refused admission to the port.

ors Union. If the order is not met,

Attack Story Gives Police Merry Chase

Police yesterday conducted an investigation into the story told by a 65-year-old woman and then turned the man loose with instructions to get going and keep going.

It all happened when Officer Edward Smith of the El Cerrito police department picked up Lindsay Hackett, 65, no address, at San Pablo and Potrero avenues. Hackett was bleeding profusely from a bad cut on his face.

Questioned by the officer, Hackett declared he had been attacked
"by a gang of men in Richmond."
He was brought to Richmond and was treated at a local hospital by Dr. G. W. Bumgarner.

After being given medical treatment Hackett led police around town to show them where he was "attacked."

Finally after much questioning it was discovered that Hackett had been drinking, had fallen down and cut his face on a broken bottle.

Wilson and Kratzer chapel to attend funeral services for the late Mrs. Mary Ann Slattery, 79, who died at her home on Bissell avenue at the services and members of Acantha Chapter, O. E. C. assisted.

Cremation was at Berkeley.

Murder Trial Is To Resume Monday

MARTINEZ, April 11.—With testimony scheduled to meet its important stage, trial will be resumed
Monday in Superior Judge A. F.
Bray's court of three Antioch men charged with the brutal murder of Allen S. Knight, 85, San Joaquin river ark dweller.

District Attorney Francis P. Healy and Deputy Homer Patterson will probably require three days to present the parade of 20 witnesses who are to appear for the state against Leroy Bussey, Lewis Sly and Fannie Sutton.

Three Drowned In Wreck Of Clipper

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Apr. 11.—UP.—The big Pan-American Airways plane, Puerto Rican Clipper, with 25 persons aboard overturned and sank in the harbor in a collision with a fishing boat today, drowning three of the seaplane's occupants.

Among the passengers who escaped were Jose Iturbi, Spanish pianist and conductor, with his secretary, Miss Jean Dalrymple, and the former Calhorne Foster, Broadway actress. Miss Foster is the wife of Maxwell J. Rice, manager of Pan-American Airways of Brazil. Miss Dalrymple is the wife of Ward Moorehouse, American playwright.

THREE DEAD
The dead, all drowned, were:
E. Ramon Martinez, New York.

Eric Battray Brongh, London, England.

Amadeo Lopez, dining steward.

Several passengers received minor injuries.

PLANE HITS BOAT

The plane, bound from Miami for Natal and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, was just taking off when the accident occurred. The pilot saw the fishing boat in his path and swerved sharply to avoid it, but one pontoon struck the boat, and the plane overturned.

The accident occurred at 5:20
A. M. just before dawn.

The plane was traveling about 50 miles an hour on the water when the pontoon caught on the bow of the fishing launch. The plane swerved sharply in a loop, tearing a hole in the forward compartment.

The passengers were taken aboard a Pan-American Airways launch to the Queens Park hotel in Port of Spain. No trace was found of the fishing launch. The two drowned passengers were found with their life belts attached in the cabin of the plane.

ODDS FAVOR ELECTION OF INCUMBENTS

EL CERRITO, April 11.—With nine candidates for the city council, 10 for city clerk and two for treasurer at the city election to be held here Tuesday, April 14, the voters have witnessed one of the most quiet campaigns in the history of the town.

The candidates for weeks have been making their fights, remarkably free of personalities, and things were running along smoothly until the customary 11th-hour crisis was pulled out of the political bag.

BETTING ODDS

The following odds are being offered in El Cerrito on the candidates at the election
Tuesday:

2 to 1 that the three incumbents, Larsen, Beck and Ru-ber will win.

Even money that Larsen will be high man.

7 to 5 that neither Lee nor McNeill will come under the wire.

40 to 1 that Kaufman, Mc-Nabb, Stark and Morrell will lose.

20 to 1 that Masterson will not be elected clerk.

MAKE CHARGES

On Thursday, S. C. Masterson, Jr., Charles Kaufman, W. D. Stark and L. A. McNabb made charges at the office of the district attorney

City Swelters In Heat Wave; Mercury At 80

Tired over continued reports that the bay regions get colder than the North Pole, the weather man yesterday turned on the heat and gave the area both barrels.

Yesterday afternoon a perspiration-over-heated, grumpy, restless gentleman was seen to observe a thermometer on Macdonald avenue. The mercury pointed to 75 degrees.

"You're a liar," the citizen shouted as he walked away.

"Huh! So you can't take it," the weather man said. So he opened the controls another notch. At 3 o'clock the temperature was at 80, the highest of the day, although sweltering citizens were will to swear by several oaths that it was at least 120 degrees. The weather man insisted it wasn't the heat—it was—well, you finish the rest.

Anyhow, cooler weather is in prospect today as fogs from the ocean and bay will keep the mercury in a more comfortable zone.

Burglar Alarm At Local Home Brings Police

Shortly after 9 o'clock last evening a man and a woman were seen approaching a house on Seventh street. They tried the door. No answer. Then the man took a ladder stored conveniently near, placed it against the wall of the house, and climbed to an upper-story window and crawled into the room. Neighbors saw the ladder and through the window could see matches being lighted. They called police.

Answering to radio alarms, two prowl cars carrying four officers dashed to the scene. Police surrounded the house. One officer, gun ready, knocked on the front door.
No answer. The policemen were prepared. They would break down the door.

At that instant the door opened and a strange man appeared. "What do you want?"

Police explained. Then he explained. He and his wife were paying, an unexpected Easter visit to friends in Richmond and found that they weren't home. So they broke into the house to await the return of their hosts.

Neighbors knew the visitors and identified them. Police called it a day and went back on their beats.

TROY WINS BY BIG SCORE IN FIELD EVENTS

BERKELEY, April 11.—UP—Dean Cromwell's U. S. C. track and field squad today overwhelmed its most formidable dual meet competitor in defeating the University of California team, by a 92 to 35 score.

Although the Trojan victory was expected, even the optimistic Cromwell was astonished by the margin piled up by his young athletes, many of whom are among America's leading prospects for the Olympic Games.

Injuries and accidents helped spoil California's chances, and then when he saw all hope of victory gone, Coach Brutus Hamilton held out his stars in the closing events to save them from injury.

But even the strongest team Hamilton could have mustered would not have stopped the Trojans today as they romped under a hot sun and high temperatures to record-breaking performances.

Santa Fe Will Start Fast L. A. Chicago Schedule

LOS ANGELES, April 11.—Using its big 3,000-horsepower Diesel locomotive, the Santa Fe Railway will inaugurate a one-a-week schedule of 39 hours and 45 minutes between Chicago and Los Angeles early in May, it was announced today by S. T. Bledsoe, president of the road.

At first, the new train to be known as the Super Chief, will carry first-class standard equipment which later in the year will give way to a deluxe streamlined stainless steel train of the most modern and commodious type, for which a contract has just been let.

The new streamlined train, drawn by the Diesel and embodying the latest wood in engineering research and design, will consist of eight cars, including a baggage car, dining car, a cocktail lounge-club car, four sleepers and a sleeper-observation.

According to Mr. Bledsoe, the deluxe Super Chief will revolutionize travel in many respects. It will be of full standard size, although weighing only approximately one-half as much as the conventional steel train. Interiors of the cars will actually

INDIAN BROOM IS WINNER IN TANFORAN RACE

TANFORAN TRACK, San Bruno, April 11.—UP—Indian Broom, a three-year old discard of Isabel Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade stables, set up a new world's record for the mile and one-eighth distance today in winning the $10,000 added Marchbank handicap on the Tanforan track.

The winner's time was 1:47 3-5 seconds and he beat Top Row, winner of the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap, by seven lengths.

In with a feather—94 pounds—the three year old son of Brooms and Kamita took the lead at the post and never stopped running. He made every post a winning one and was widening the gap even at the end.

Basil James Tanforan's prize apprentice jockey, was astride the record-breaking colt now owned by Major Austin C. Taylor, Yancouver, B. C. sportsman who operates the A. C. T. stock farm.

It was Taylor's fifth handicap victory of the Tanforan spring meet which ended today. His Special Agent won two races for older horses and Indian Broom came through today with this third consecutive handicap win.

The Brookmeade stables once owned both Indian Broom and Special Agent but Trainer Bob Smith saw fit to let both thoroughbreds go during the Santa Anita winter meeting. Taylor, who had spent thousands in trying to breed, then buy a major racing stable, picked them for a virtual song.

Oakland Again Defeats Ducks By Close Score

Oakland added another victory to its string yesterday to maintain its Pacific Coast League lead. The Oaks nosed out Portland 6-5 in a hot and heavy game.

The Beavers pounced upon To-bin in the third inning and scored the aid of an Oakland error, scored four runs. Oakland scored three in its half of the third and added two more in the fourth inning. In the fifth Portland tied the score, only to have Oakland push ahead with the winning tally in the sixth canto.

San Diego held a track meet in the south to trounce San Francisco 23 to 4; the luckless Sacramento Solons snapped out of their nine-game losing streak and beat Seattle 3-1 and the Los Angeles team lost an 8 to 3 decision to the Missions.

Charges are Moderate

It is well to remember that a beautiful mortuary does not mean high prices, as this firm proves. With all the refinements and comforts to be found here, charges are never higher than the smallest incomes can easily afford. By including everything in one plainly marked price, we have made it possible for every family to make an appropriate selection without financial hardship.

Guests Forced To Flee As S. F. Hotel Is Fired

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—UP—The lives of 100 guests were imperiled today when a fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, gutted the three-story Fillmore hotel.

A third alarm was turned in before the blaze was brought under control. Traffic for blocks around was halted.

The fire started in a room on the top floor and spread rapidly through the building. Sylvia Lallane, manager of the hotel, discovered the blaze, turned in an alarm and warned guests.

Six firemen were partially overcome by fumes from the blaze.

The hotel was once a fashionable rendezvous. It was razed partially in the 1906 fire and rebuilt. Its peculiar type of construction, firemen said, rendered it a perfect forced draught for the flames.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

MRS. CARL W. LONGACRE

One of the very plain indications of a let-down of moral stamina during the years of economic depression has come to light in the discovery of what reports call a "frenzied" national vice syndicate. The surprise attack in New York City, after five months of investigation there and elsewhere, disclosed that a commercialized vice chain had been doing a $12,000,000 a year business in New York with branches in a dozen other places, at least. The girls—numbering between one and two thousands in the New York area—were recruited in that section and also imported from Florida, Boston, Augusta, Maine, St. Louis, Chicago and elsewhere.

Newspaper reports of the investigation and disclosures made no mention of liquor, but what is familiar with the white slavery records of the past and who understands the effect of alcohol in tearing down moral inhibitions, will doubt the part that alcohol has played directly and indirectly, in this vice ring.

One might go further and ask whether the homes where liquor is seen have been responsible for the lowering of moral standards in sons and daughters, and whether advertisers and columnists who glorify social drinking are guiltless.

The films will be presented at conclusion of the dinner. Anyone wishing to attend the dinner has been asked to contact Mrs. Helen Kingsbury at 2470.

Those wishing to see the pictures may do so at the conclusion of the dinner. The public is cordially invited to see the films.

Archie McVickers headed the committee in charge of refreshments served at conclusion of the meeting.

The group will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. Martin Salmi, 411 Western avenue.

GREAT MUSICAL HIT FILM AT THE FOX TODAY

Today brings a new musical hit to the Fox theater with the greatest fun-making cast since "42nd Street." The new hit is "Colleen" which screens with "Too Many Parents" today and tomorrow.

Dick Powell, Jack Oakie, Ruby Keeler, Hugh Herbert, Joan Blondell, Louise Fazenda, Paul Draper, Lulu Albert, Marie Wilson and Hobart Cavanaugh all will be seen in the sprightly ensemble of nonsense and song, "Colleen."

As a spectacle, the picture presents two unusual specialty numbers staged by Bobby Connolly, former dance director for the Ziegfeld Follies. Two hundred beautiful chorines and dancing boys are used in the numbers.

The picture is a combination of fashion show, beauty pageant, comedy fiasco, musical banquet and dancing spree. In addition, three new songs are presented in "You Gotta Know How to Dance," "I Don't Have to Dream Again" and "Boulevardier From The Bronx."

The director claims that in one number, a hundred of the most beautiful backs in the world are on display.

SHE LOST 20 POUNDS OF FAT

Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave—you can't if you listen to gossipers. To take off excess fat go light on fatty meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—eat more fruit and vegetables and take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning to eliminate excess waste.

Mrs. Elma Verille of Havre de Grace, Md., writes: "I took off 20 lbs. in 12 weeks by using Kruschen Salts. No drastic cathartics—no constipation—just blissful daily bowel action when you take your little daily dose of Kruschen."

One possibility he is watching is Clyde Hoey, candidate for Governor

Glad To Be Free

"OH, IT'S so good to be free again!" exclaimed Vera Stretz, university graduate, after a New York jury freed her of a charge of murder in the shooting of her lover, Dr. Fritz Gebhardt, German industrialist. Miss Stretz is shown above in the office of her attorney, Samuel Leibowitz, right, after her self-defense plea was accepted by the jury.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, April 11—Managers of Governor Alf Landon are so confident he will win the presidential nomination that they have begun to lay the groundwork for a GOP labor committee for the campaign. At a secret meeting in Washington last week, a Landon spokesman told fourteen union officials that the Kansan had the nomination "in the bag" and that the Republican Party would have plenty of money to wage an aggressive fight against Roosevelt.

The last two days of March saw more new stock issues registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission than during all of its first year. Reason for the sudden rush was that until the April 1 deadline corporations could use their year-end balance sheets as the basis of stock issues. After April 1 a new audit of accounts was required. The "Standing Room Only" sign will be out when Andy Mellon's $2,000,000 tax evasion case is argued before the Board of Tax Appeals in June. Already, more requests for seats have been received from lawyers and thrill-seekers than there are places in the Board's hearing room. Facing one another in the drama is debate will be Robert Jackson, young Assistant Attorney General, and Frank Hogan, counsel for Albert W. Fall, and others in the famous Teapot Dome scandal. . . . Hollywood Film Shop

HOLLYWOOD, April 11—UP—Director William Dieterle has designed what he believes is the perfect hospital and for his creative work is receiving the scathing scorn of sanitation experts.

"Dirty" is the only adjective to describe the set which is to be used during the filming of Warner's Brothers conception of the career of Florence Nightingale.

"Dirty?" asked Dieterle, when questioned about the set, "why, that is just the way I want it."

"I first ordered Anton Grot to build the set. When I inspected it, the whole thing was spotless. There wasn't a speck of dirt nor a cobweb anywhere. The floors were scrubbed and the walls were white. Even the mattresses were clean."

"I decided that wasn't just the kind of a hospital Florence Nightingale found when she began her work as a nurse. So I ordered that it be made dirty, terribly dirty."

His instructions were followed to the letter. Workmen decorated the nooks and corners with synthetic cobwebs. The mattresses were slashed open and the clean straw replaced. Fifty spiders were released and encouraged to do their worst. A number of dirty rags, and old shoes were thrown around for good measure.

The working crew then allowed Dieterle a preview. He didn't like what he saw so he personally took charge. Ordering several barrels of dust, he distributed it with sweeping shovels, threw the mattresses on the floor and jumped on them.

"Now," he said, "this place is just about right for Florence Nightingale to start cleaning up."

Son Of Calles Will Return To Homeland Today

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, April 11—UP—Alfred Calles, who accompanied his exiled father, General Plutarco Elias Calles, on the deposed dictator's airplane exit yesterday from Mexico, said late today he had been notified that the Secretary of the Interior would permit him to re-enter Mexico tomorrow.

Young Calles said he expected to leave Brownsville on the morning Pan-American plane tomorrow.

He refused to discuss reports from Mexico City that his father's property might be confiscated by the state as an aftermath of his expulsion by President Lázaro Cárdenas for asserted anti-government activity.

Although young Calles said he received a telegram from the Secretary of the Interior giving him re-entry permission, immigration authorities in Matamoros, Mexico, opposite Brownsville, said they had received no new orders since they were instructed earlier today to refuse a return permit to the deposed dictator's son.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, April 11—Rather grim is the spectacle of people who win fame quickly in this town and then lose it twice as fast.

It's a somewhat chastening thing to call the roster of some of these quick-change luminaries. There was Julian Robledo, the South American violinist who wrote the phenomenally successful "Three O'Clock in the Morning." He wrote no more tunes and vanished from the spotlight. James Murray, the handsome fellow who worked as an usher at a local movie house, was drafted by the Hollywood moguls to star in King Vidor's "The Crowd." He appeared in a few mediocre pictures afterwards and then faded.

Marcus Garvey, the Negro, stirred Harlem for some time, almost convincing its citizens that he was their chosen leader. He was jailed and deported for the using the mails to defraud. Frank Silver and Irving Coon wrote "Yes, We Have No Bananas" they couldn't author another hit. The latter now pilots an orchestra. The Dixieland Jazz band produced that hottest of hot tunes, "Tiger Rag" and then never could get out even a lukewarm aria.

Sometimes the spotlight burns. LUCRE—Why do so many night clubs open in New York year after year? Well, Sherman Billingsley has been telling about a few details in his Stork Club, popular gathering place for swanky swells, and it helps give you an idea.

You won't believe it, but the gross income of his spot—which seats some 300 persons—is just about $1,000,000 a year. That's a lot of money, even after you add up the expenses.

Billingsley employs nearly 200 people. He spends $7,000 a year for flowers. Repairs and such cost $25,000 a year; breakage and theft run to another $25,000. Bad checks (yes, even Park Avenue often bounces) amount to $15,000 a year, and the light bill is $12,000. But they receive $12,800 a year for the checking commission, which is $4,800 more than the annual rent.

Love Shy

By Nelly Graf (AUTHOR OF "GIRLS WITHOUT MEN")

CHAPTER XXXII

THE day before Marianne was to leave Centerville, she asked to see David. He was much better now, Eve had told her.

When she entered his room, David's eyes glowed.

"My princess," he said shyly, holding out his arms.

She put her arms about him and kissed him.

"Miss Eve says you've been sick," he said.

"But I'm all right now. I came to tell you goodbye."

"Goodbye!" David looked distressed.

"I won't stay away long," Marianne assured him. "I'm just going to find a girl who got lost a long time ago."

"A little girl like Rose Ann or Deena?" David asked wonderingly.

"Would you like for me to tell you a story about her?" Marianne asked.

"A story!" David breathed ecstatically.

MARIANNE laid her head down by his.

"A lot of things happened to this girl," she began.

"Bad things?" David's voice trembled.

"Yes. So the girl got lost in a dark forest. And away from the sunlight, she became ugly and mean and . . ."

"hurt you when you find her. Don't go."

"She won't hurt me," Marianne assured him. "And she wants to get out of the dark forest. You wouldn't have me leave her there, would you, David?"

"No," David answered solemnly. "If I were all well I'd go with you. We'd go in and bring her out. Gee, that would be fun. But you can help me in another way."

"What is it?" David asked eagerly.

"Get well by the time I return. Because I have grand things planned for us. I'm going to get a place out here somewhere and we will live in it. You and I and . . ."

"And Mr. Bailey!" shrieked David.

"Oh, no!" Marianne hoped he did not notice her unsteady tone.

"But what about the lost girl? Won't she want to live with us?"

"Perhaps. We'll see about that later."

"Oh, gee!" David said excitedly. "Now kiss me goodbye!"

Marianne returned his convulsive squeeze—"and get well faster than fast!"

"I promise!" David waved as she left the room.

THE NEXT morning, Marianne left for Centerville. Eve, her mother, and Dr. Lawson were sworn to secrecy as to her whereabouts.

"You mustn't feel badly," Dr. Lawson consoled Eve as she sat tearfully in his office after Marianne had gone.

"But I hate to think of her going away like that by herself!"

"She'll be all right. The very fact that she thinks the trip will help will do the trick."

Suddenly, his arms were about her.

"Seeing you cry like this—Eve, dear, I guess I fell in love with you the first time I saw you. I hadn't intended to tell you so soon."

"Oh, Doctor Law . . ."

"My name is Barry. Won't you call me Barry and say you care a little for me?"

"I care a lot," Eve stammered, "but I don't deserve . . ."

"Why dig up the past, honey? We've found each other—"

They heard steps coming down the hall, and the doctor released Eve just as his secretary entered.

"Mr. Bailey is here to see you," the girl announced.

"Show him in," said the doctor. Eve slipped out a side door.

"I CAME to ask a favor," Leonard began abruptly as he entered.

"Granted before asked," Dr. Lawson answered, smiling.

"I'm getting married next month," Leonard continued jerkily.

The doctor looked his surprise.

"Congratulations! Er—who is the lucky girl?"

"Jill Jackson. I'm leaving the real estate game. Having a streak of luck with my writing."

"I see . . . Well, what's the favor you want?"

"I want you to be best man. The wedding will be next month."

"Ticked to death, old man. And I hope I'll be asking you to do the same for me soon, if Miss Minnear—"

"Miss Minnear!"

"Eve," Dr. Lawson was watching Leonard's face closely. "You surely didn't think I meant Marianne? Er—by the way, I suppose I can tell you now that she's been a patient here."

"A patient! Here? Then she didn't go with David!"

"Why, no—didn't you know that had been broken off?"

"Mey I—do you suppose she would see me?"

"I said she had been a patient here. She's gone now."

"Gone! Where?"

The doctor didn't answer. He studied Leonard for a moment, then:

"Listen here, Len," he said bluntly. "Do you think it is quite fair to a girl like Jill to marry her when you're in love with some one else?"

A RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT

For the many things he has accomplished during his term of office, for the benefit and welfare of the people of El Cerrito

J. RALPH BECK

Councilman, Who Is Seeking Re-Election, Is Entitled To Top The List When The Ballots Are Counted Tuesday, April 14, 1936. By Your Votes You Can Show Your Appreciation Of The Untiring Efforts He Has Put Forth, While In Office, For The Advancement Of His Home City

RE-ELECT HIM AS COUNCILMAN

During No Time Before In The History Of El Cerrito, Has There Been As Much Accomplished, More Prosperity Enjoyed By Its Citizens, More Improvements Made, Or A Greater Growth Achieved Than In The Period That Beck Has Faithfully And Diligently Served Its People. The Betterment Of The City, The Happiness And Prosperity Of Its People, Have Always Been His Aims, While Serving In A Public Capacity.

HIS MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

When Beck was first elected to office he took the position with a number of objectives in view. All of the program he then mapped out, has been carried through to fruition. Among some of his major accomplishments are the following:

- 1—He ended the racket of the street paving contractors, that placed a tremendous burden on property owners, and in some cases caused them to lose their homes. He has steadfastly refused to sanction any street improvement, the cost of which would practically be confiscation.
- 2—Fighting single handed, over a period of six years, Beck was finally successful in having El Cerrito postal conditions improved. For years the residents of the city practically had no service, and mail to its people was coming addressed to three different offices. Today as a result of his tenacious fight, residents are enjoying city delivery of mail to their homes daily, and in the business section, along San Pablo avenue, there are two deliveries daily.
- 3—Another of the major activities of the candidate, was the improvement of San Pablo avenue, from curb to curb, without it costing the property owners one cent. This work has added greatly to the desirability of the business section. It has also been the means of increasing the assessed valuation of the city. Another beneficial result has been the cutting down of the ratio of accidents on the avenue.
- 4—Through strict attention to the financial affairs of the city, during the recent depression, and while he was Mayor and chairman of the finance committee, he was able to bring about economies, that greatly aided in building up the financial condition of the municipality. When he was elected Mayor, there was a deficit of $8,000, and at the end of his term it had been reduced to 62,000.
- 5—During his regime the fire department was re-organized, and its efficiency increased. This has brought about an adjustment in fire insurance rates, so that today El Cerrito is enjoying the same favorable rates as Richmond and Alameda county. Where fire insurance rates were formerly $1.24 per $100 they are now 57 cents.
- 6—Also due to his efforts, a considerable reduction in the city tax rate was brought about. This was done without the efficiency of the different departments being impaired. Last year the tax rate was $1.00 per $100, and this year it is but 85 cents, or a reduction of 15 cents on each $100 of assessable property. This reduction affects every property owner in the city. It means more money in your pockets, and less to be paid on your tax bill.

A PROGRESSIVE CITIZEN

A resident of El Cerrito for the past 17 years, Beck has always taken a sincere pride in encouraging and abetting any movement, not only for the city as a whole, but for the advancement and happiness of its people. To make his home city attractive for home-loving people, has always been uppermost in his mind. He realizes that a community has no greater asset than contented and satisfied citizens.

His Activities Are Many

Civic work has always been of great interest to the candidate. As a member of the executive committee of the Western Contra Costa area of the Boy Scouts, he has been very active. He realizes that these boys will soon be of voting age and he knows that Boy Scouts make the best citizens.

As a veteran he has always devoted much time to the interests of those who served in the World War. He is a member of Louis Hagen Post, No. 340, American Legion; past commander of El Cerrito Post, No. 2521, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and is chairman of the board of directors of the Veterans Memorial Hall Association.

Put A Cross (X) After His Name

A vote Tuesday for Beck means a continuation of the growth of the city. His record of achievements entitles him to your consideration. When you enter the polls, put a cross (X) after his name. It will be an act of appreciation. It will show that you believe in rewarding an official for his fidelity to a public trust.

Is Your Skin Ready For Spring Days?

By CLAUD NORTH CHRISMAN, M.D.

CHRONIC ARTHRITIS is always a subject of great general interest. Many persons are afflicted with it and after it once becomes established its gradual progress and development is pathetic. We feel so helpless and often all our efforts seem to be without avail. The time to accomplish anything in the beginning and any delay only makes recovery more difficult. Arthritis is essentially a chronic inflammation of the joint surface with drying up of the joint fluid and final stiffness of the joint.

Profiles For Today

Author Used To Credit For His Plays

By TALBOT LAKE

MAXWELL ANDERSON has won so many prizes for his plays that it is getting to be an old story. So when "Winterset" was crowned by New York critics as the best offering of the season Mr. Anderson could not have been much agitated.

This 47-year-old author is a native of Pennsylvania. He took his undergraduate degree at the University of North Dakota and his master's at Stanford, after which he taught school for a while and served as an instructor in English at Stanford.

After his teaching career he worked on a number of newspapers in San Francisco and New York. His name first came into prominence when, with Laurence Stallings, he wrote the war play called "What Price Glory."

In recent years he has been writing his plays in verse, and his sonorous passages in "Mary of Scotland" will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to have heard them, with Helen Hayes, and Philip Merivale in the leading parts.

Mr. Anderson lives quietly in the country near New York with his wife, a native of North Dakota, and their three sons. He is bespectacled and wears a black mustache.

About Sun Baths

Be careful about the sun baths for your child, no matter what the age. They should be gradual, a few minutes at a time. And always the eyes should be protected from the direct rays.

If the child is a baby, the mother or nurse should be present. Sun is a valuable source of health, but the exposure can be overdone.

This applies to grown-ups as well as babies, says a well-known health authority.

Comes On Gradually

When only one joint is affected the disease comes on more gradually, pain is not so severe except in movement. Gradually the joint becomes stiff and because of contraction of the muscles and tendons and destruction of the joint surface on one side, deformity occurs and the part may become crooked and shapen.

The treatment is to find the source of the trouble and remove it. After the disease becomes well established the removal may do little good but we can usually prevent the involvement of other joints. The best and most generally used treatment is the injection of vaccines made from the patient's own source of infection. If that cannot be reached, general stock vaccines are often helpful. Early treatment is the only really successful method.

Mr. J. A. S., of Texas, says that he has had arthritis of one hip for a number of years; that his leg has become about two inches shorter than the other one and due to the pain he can scarcely walk. Arthritis does not cause shortening unless the socket is destroyed. He should have an X-ray taken of the joint to determine the cause of the shortening. He may have other trouble with the joint, probably tubercular. That would be another story.

Dr. Chrisman offers readers the privilege of addressing questions to him care of this column. He will answer questions of general interest in his regular daily column.

Modes and Manners

QUESTION: "I am planning to take a large group out to dine. Is it proper to let each guest order his own dinner?"
—C. B. M.

ANSWER: This would be a continuing and a waste of time. A better plan for a large party is to select the dishes in advance. Do this when you reserve your table. In this way all the guests will be served the same dinner, just as they would be if they were dining at your own home.

Is Your Skin Ready For Spring Days?

By JACQUELINE HUNT

ARE you ready for the Easter parade? You are if you can answer "yes" to these questions. Take your hand mirror into the bright light before a window and study your skin carefully. Is it smooth and fine-textured? Has it a good color? Does your rouge match your natural coloring so perfectly and is it so skillfully applied that it is hard to tell whether nature or art has been at work?

Are your eyes the most important feature of your face? Does your skin seem warm and alive when you put on your Easter outfit? If you fail on any of these points after your own critical inspection, try to find out what is wrong. You can sometimes work miracles in a few days.

Check up on your beauty habits. If your skin is improperly cleansed you may find that your cosmetics do not look right. The over-oily skin will "absorb" a surprising amount of rouge and after an hour or so your skin may look dull and sallow. Oiliness causes powder to cake and noses to shine.

If your chin and nose are peppered with blackheads, your powder will not look right. If your skin is too dry you may have trouble blending your rouge evenly and lightly and your powder will blow off in a little while, leaving your skin scaly and shiny in spots.

Cleanse your skin with extra care, using a special preparation. If there are blackheads, then use a good astringent or a softening cream and gentle toning lotion to correct the condition that is bothering you.

While you are trying to improve your skin, look around for a good foundation preparation. April weather is kind to your skin, but after a winter, you also need a make-up base to give your skin a velvety smooth finish.

Many women find that a creamy lotion like that they use on their hands makes a good make-up base and skin softener. The woman with a very oily skin will find one of the liquid-powder lotions a splendid foundation. Girls with dry skins may like to apply a good all-purpose or cold cream, wipe off the excess and dash their faces with cold water three or four times a day, and then pat dry and apply rouge and powder.

If you do not know what kind of make-up base is best do a bit of experimenting. A tinted foundation cream or lotion may give your skin more life and warmth. You may find that you need a cream foundation for dry, windy days but that you can do without a foundation on balmy spring days.

The right foundation, properly used, will conceal many small defects such as coarse pores, freckles or occasional blackheads and will make your skin appear more nearly perfect.

Look around for new powder, lipstick and rouge if those you are using are not as flattering as they should be after you have altered your skin treatments and found the right make-up base.

Beauty Tips

QUESTION: "You may think my problem is silly, but it is important to me. I have a long, broad face with a high forehead. I have a permanent and wear my hair parted in the middle with bangs. My girl friend came over one day and fixed my hair on the side, parting the bangs and setting them in a deep wave coming all the way to my eyebrows. She set my hair all over in waves—no ringlet ends. Every one noticed the difference and said they liked my hair best the other way, so I changed back. Now my girl friend is hurt and will not speak to me. Also I want to get a new spring coat. I would like to have something with stripes or a large plaid design, but I'm afraid it might make me look fatter, as I am quite plump. How can I tell if I look well with rouge and what color is best? I have been using orange." —J. P.

Personally, I would prefer your old style of hairdress. Your girl friend will get over her peevishness in a little while so do not let it worry you. If you are inclined to be plump, you had better choose a plain colored coat. One with a belted back would probably be more slenderizing than the swag-type. You are the one to determine whether you look best with rouge or without it. I cannot tell you what color to use, since you didn't tell me the color of your hair or eyes or whether your complexion is light or dark.

Eggs Make Good Fare For Any Meal of the Day

By JUDITH WILSON

EASTER and eggs go together, but all of the eggs need not be hard boiled and painted in gay colors! Let your Easter eggs appear in a variety of roles—for breakfast, for luncheon, for dinner. Eggs can be prepared in more ways than anything else in the world. Serve them as a main dish for supper or for Easter breakfast, as dessert for dinner or let them hold the center stage of your hors d'oeuvres plate.

Here are just a few suggestions:

DINNERS
Hot Liver-Egg Canapes
Roast Stuffed Chicken
Scalloped Potatoes
Buttered New Lima Beans
Celery Cranberry Jelly
Baked Peaches with Meringue Coffee

Veal Kidney Omelet
Put a glass of red wine in a pan and add to it 1 teaspoon beef extract. Simmer until the liquid is reduced by half. Melt 1 tablespoon butter and in it saute 1 finely chopped onion. Skim out the pieces and add to the wine. Add more butter to your pan and saute 6 thinly sliced mushrooms until light brown. Sprinkle a teaspoon of flour over them and add the wine. Simmer until the mixture is smooth. In another pan saute 1 cut up veal kidney until brown on all sides. Add to the sauce and keep hot while you make a six-egg omelet.

For the omelet, break 6 eggs into a bowl, add salt and pepper to season and 2 tablespoons thick cream. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a frying pan and tilt so the surface is covered. Have the pan quite hot and turn in the eggs. The bottom will set at once. Poke here and there so the liquid part will run under, reduce the heat and cook until the omelet is nearly firm. Add the kidney stuffing and 1 teaspoon finely chopped parsley, fold over and serve on a hot platter. Garnish with parsley.

Baked Peaches
Drain 8 canned peach halves from their syrup. Beat together 2 eggs whites and 6 tablespoons powdered sugar until stiff. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Heap this meringue into the center of the peaches. Place on slices of sponge cake in a greased baking pan and brown in a moderate oven 15 minutes. Serve warm.

Parisian Egg Salad
This is good for the buffet supper or for a cold spring luncheon. Hard-cook, shell and divide 1 or more eggs for each person. Cut the top from a long loaf of French or Italian bread and scoop out the soft part. Spread with softened butter and fill with the following vegetables, blended with mayonnaise: 2 ripe tomatoes and 2 celery hearts, diced, 1/2 cup cooked green peas, 1/2 green pepper, finely chopped, 1 cup cooked diced carrots, 1 cup cooked baby lima beans and 1 cup cooked asparagus tips cut into 1-inch lengths. Arrange the eggs on top of the vegetable salad, pressing them down a little. Garnish with parsley and strips of pimiento.

Poached Eggs with Sauce
Butter egg poachers and break eggs into each one. Lower into water that has just stopped boiling and cook until they reach the right degree of doneness for your taste. Turn out carefully on slices of well buttered toast and pour over the following sauce: Melt 3 tablespoons butter and add 2 tablespoons flour. Blend until smooth and add 1 cup hot chicken broth, stirring constantly until the sauce is very smooth. Let it boil up once. Add 1/2 of a parboiled green pepper, finely chopped. Season well with salt, pepper and paprika. Served with a large green salad, crusty rolls and a simple dessert, you will have as nice a luncheon as you could wish.

Deviled Eggs
Shell 6 hard-cooked eggs and slice lengthwise. Remove the yolks and mash them in a bowl. Add 1/2 teaspoon English mustard, 2 tablespoons grated yellow cheese, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 2 teaspoons mild vinegar, 3 tablespoons finely chopped crisp bacon, 1 teaspoon chopped olives, salt and pepper to taste. Blend this mixture thoroughly. Fill the egg whites with the mixture and dust lightly with paprika. Garnish with parsley.

Coffee Custard
Scald 1 cup milk in the top of a double boiler. Add 1 cup very strong coffee, Beat together slightly the yolks of 4 eggs, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Pour the milk and coffee mixture, and cook over hot water until the mixture coats a spoon. Remove from the fire and cool, stirring occasionally. Chill and serve. This makes 4 servings.

The Stylist

Dresses Not Put Out By Suit Vogue

By IRENE VAIL

New York — Without decrying the importance of the suit, it remains quite plain that being in the possession of a suit does not release one from a desire for dresses too. Here are a few musts among dress lines.

There is the shirtwaist type, an old friend now but still to be had with interesting variations. There is the tunic dress, with that two-piece look even when it isn't. There are the jacket and other actually two-piece types.

In these one must include the various pelium models, youthful types with peliums doing several things as for instance, flaring or introduced either at back or front only.

Buttons are nearly always involved and there is a disposition to play the sheer frock with striped taffeta beruffled petticoat or a vivid dramatic contrast of charming idea and in keeping with a "fluffy ruffle" trend.

Frothy frocks run to sensational sleeves. Not, however, always long ones.

Necklines remain close to the chin for every type of dress except evening variety. Even then there are enough high cut bodices to make it a matter of individual preference whether one's dress is cut low or not.

Remember, that while shoulder lines arise and shine, they should also widen instead of rising, which case the shoulder line may be long—the sleeve jutting out below the actual shoulder. If you can take it, the bulky built-up look around the shoulders is aces high.

Don't forget—that both capes and jackets are liable to be pleated. And this very general statement includes tunics, which seem to be gaining in favor. Tunic seem particularly nice in sheers, of which there are, as we keep telling you, many in circulation.

Colors have never been used with greater abandon, and I might add, effect. One of the contributory factors working toward a fresh new aspect of prints is spacing. We have been accustomed to prints of the all-over variety, the most kindly to the run-of-the-mill figure, and as the alternative dots, not very widely spaced but still permitting the ground color to show.

These we have still with us, but the big news is the widely spaced prints the motifs for which are not only well separated but distinctly on the striking side, both as to color and design.

This new type is not a good choice for the all-around dress. It is the smash hit for the frock the essence of which is formality. The ground or background color counts and whether it's light on dark or dark on light, there is pretty sure to be green and yellow mixed up in it somewhere.

One of the best things about the 1936, up-to-the-minute fashions is that they do not restrict a woman. She can express her own personality. On the fashionable walks in New York one sees women dressed according to their natures.

Of course, there are certain style trends, but the fact remains that there is considerable freedom. And New York women, especially, are taking advantage of it.

MODERN WOMEN

How Women Get Their Many Duties Done Is a Puzzle

By MARIAN MAYS MARTIN

WHEN friend husband, conversationally inclined, remarks, "Well, my dear, what have you been doing today?" it's by way of being a jar to even the most industrious woman. Unless she has had a very definite job, such as canning, washing and ironing she is quite incapable of giving an impressive account of her day's doings.

"Let's see," she will say, "after you let me go the dishes washed and the beds made and the marketing done, I went up in the attic, scolded down in the cellar, or from one to the other." All of which sounds easy enough, but were the woman to really give a minute account of what she had done, she would probably be exhausted.

It really is surprising that women with houses and families, and often the job of family chauffeur thrown in, have any time to themselves at all.

It's nothing short of miraculous that such women manage to get all the things done considering all the hit or miss plan on which most women operate. Say what one, it will be hard to systematize housework because so many others besides oneself get caught into the machinery. Insistent interruptions are one of the greatest difficulties, in one's path. There is no efficient secretary to take one's phone calls, to make one's appointments and to get rid of botes.

Busy husbands, when interrupted by a chance caller, can say, without offense, "I am sorry, old man, but I have an appointment so can only give you five minutes before leaving." A busy housewife has to keep smiling if she expects to keep on good terms with the neighbor and has to bear as patiently as possible, with the idle chatter of the invertebrate telephone gossip. And the door bell and the procession of worthies who are trying to sell needles and pins or what have you.

Men Have Helpers
I know business men have their interruptions, even well-oiled machinery gets out of whack and things happen that are not on the schedule. But almost without exception there is an army of paid helpers to rush to the rescue and to help, if not at once, make all the necessary moves toward the desired end.

It's not so easy for the home worker, with a baby's cries adding to the confusion and kettles boiling over or saucepans boiling down to the burning point. Even conceding that men's work is the more important because it brings home the bacon I still think it's the less nerve wracking of the two.

I wish Eleanor Roosevelt of the abundant energy would really divulge the secret of her ability to be all over the map at once. It's impossible to imagine such energy confined or restricted to the home. Its very four walls, not to mention the roof, could never remain static against such a force unless, as I suspect, that the daily demands upon the average housewife and mother would floor even the breathtaking First Lady. I never get my day in a snarl and my chores in a tangle that I don't think of how much less I really have to do than Mrs. Roosevelt and I never wonder how on earth I'm ever going to get time for a manicure or a permanent, or to find a hat or buy shoes that I don't pride myself on by saying "Mrs. Roosevelt does it."

Short Cuts
As a Sunday morning treat try serving fried noodles with broiled bacon or baked sausage. The noodles should be cooked first in salted boiling water. Then fry them in butter. That's all that is necessary, because noodles unlike spaghetti and macaroni are made with eggs.

FRESH DRAPERIES
This is the time of year when housekeepers wish to freshen their windows. The designers and makers have prepared many new and unusual treatments for windows this spring. This one, recently shown in New York, lends itself to the rather severe type of living room now so popular.

WOMAN'S MANY STOPS
The housewife of today has a much earlier time of day than did her predecessors. Still life isn't entirely sustained out of a can. Even were it the case it takes time to even open a can and give the necessary touches even the best canned goods require.

It really is surprising that women with houses and families, and often the job of family chauffeur thrown in, have any time to themselves at all.

It's nothing short of miraculous that such women manage to get all the things done considering all the hit or miss plan on which most women operate. Say what one, it will be hard to systematize housework because so many others besides oneself get caught into the machinery. Insistent interruptions are one of the greatest difficulties, in one's path. There is no efficient secretary to take one's phone calls, to make one's appointments and to get rid of botes.

Riley today opposed the motion to name Schofield a valuation engineer, but was outvoted by other members of the personnel board.

TOO MUCH TO SAY—NO EXERCISE

THAT'S JUST THE WAY TO LIVE

He felt a different man next day. Believed the Alka-Seltzer way.

Why don't you take Alka-Seltzer for Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, Colds, Fatigue, Muscular, Rheumatic or Sciatic Pains?

Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline drink. As it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) that relieves the pain of everyday ailments, then by restoring the alkaline balance, corrects the cause when due to excess acid.

Time yourself with Alka-Seltzer.

BE WISE—ALKALIZE

IT'S SIMPLY INEXCUSABLE

You cannot expect to make friends socially or in business if you have halitosis (bad breath). Since you cannot detect it yourself, the one way of making sure you do not offend is to gargle often with Listerine. It instantly destroys odors, improves mouth hygiene and checks infection. PORT UNION SEEKS TEST OF STRENGTH

The vessel will be picketed and longshoremen will refuse to touch her cargo. If the blockade is broken at San Pedro, it will be renewed with greater force at San Francisco where the federation and its following is stronger.

The move may bring to a head a split between the I. S. U. and the Sailors Union of the Pacific.

COURT FIGHT ON

The I. S. U. in convention last winter revoked the sailors union charter because of its affiliation with the maritime federation and its apparent left wing leadership. Led by Harry Lundeborg, who resigned the federation presidency to become executive secretary of the Pacific Sailors organization, the western union has challenged the authority of the international and has carried its battle to preserve its charter into the courts.

The San Francisco superior court today returned two decisions favorable to the Sailors Union. Superior Judge T. L. Harris granted the western sailors a temporary injunction to restrain the I. S. U. from organizing a new local pending outcome of the sailors' fight to regain their charter. Then he denied the U. I. S. U. the right to impound the Sailors' Union fund.

Writ Issued In Solon's Battle Over Expenses

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—UP—The State Supreme Court today issued an alternative writ of mandamus against Ray L. Riley, State controller, in connection with the suit brought by Assemblyman J. Phillips, Riverside, to force Riley to approve a $185 expense claim of the Assembly committee on agricultural marketing.

The writ was made returnable May 6. The court must decide whether a legislative interim committee has any claim on State funds with which to pay for clerical help.

Good Friday was observed by El Cerrito business houses with most of them closing during the noon hour.

Easter morning services will be held at 7 o'clock on El Cerrito Hill by Albany and El Cerrito churches in a joint ceremony with Rev. R.

The pajama top and the covering sheet of the rumpled bed were being tested this way in the hope the slayer did not wear gloves.

ANOTHER LEAD
The other lead came from Countess Alice Hoyos, one of the prominent neighbors of the Tittertons.

Countess Alice and her house guest, Miss Phyllis Stafford, said that on two days last week a handsome youth of about 22 knocked on their door but seemed unable to give a valid reason for his action. In both cases he muttered that he was looking for a "Mister Hollahan."

He seemed to want to "hide his face but he made no attempt to molest either of the women.

SAN JOSE, April 11.—UP—David Lamson's first job since his release from prison will take him to Hollywood.

Lamson announced today he would leave Monday for the movie capital to assist in filming a picture adaptation of his book, "We Who Are About to Die."

The former Stanford University amateur playwright and college poet, wrote the book while in the death cell row at San Quentin prison. His work in Hollywood will take about a month. After that he does not know definitely what he will do.

Old Physician Declares Bills Owing Are Paid

COHASSET, Minn., April 11.—UP—Old Dr. M. M. Hurst, a country doctor who never refused a man in need in all his life, was a hero tonight in a different way in the eyes of residents of this tiny community.

The spirit of Easter seized the old physician today and he grabbed his record book, containing $50,000 worth of bad accounts, and dashed it into the fireplace.

"Throwing that old book away was the best thing I ever did," he said, as he watched the leaves of a 30-year-old history of the community's pains and aches wither in the embers. "A man can't be happy if he has to worry about money."

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach distaste, indigestion, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder, when you consider that a mischievous germ is constantly at work in the mouth, waiting for the opportunity to offend.

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of any kind of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plates.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and false dentures. Halitosis fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, are then completely destroyed.

Try using Listerine every two or three days, so how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Listerine Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

S. C. Masterson, Jr., candidate for City Clerk denied a rumor that he is not an established resident of El Cerrito and called attention to the fact that his father is the owner of the Bungalow Auto Court where he has lived for the past six years. Besides this both Mr. Masterson and his father own other property in El Cerrito.

In a statement Masterson said: "Of course I expect to have opposition, but I do wish that relevant facts would be discussed rather than half-truths and deliberate perversions. Townsend, today held out the palm of peace to the pension plan organizer by offering to return to the fold if Townsend pledged support to the McGroarty pension measure.

If Dr. Townsend should come up on this platform and tell me that he is for the McGroarty bill, I would fight with him shoulder to shoulder," Highley shouted addressing a meeting of the Bolting Club 93. "I have done nothing to turn Dr. Townsend down. I respect him as the head of the plan."
